

STATEMENT OF FAITH-BASED SHARED VALUES

This statement represents the shared Anabaptist/Brethren/Quaker faith-based values on which MutualAid eXchange (“MAX”[®]) is founded. These values guide our work of serving MAX members with the highest quality products and services, in a context of creating and sustaining wholeness in property, lives and communities. MAX works in collaboration with the church, the Christian community of faith, following the teachings of Christ and New Testament principles, as its way of promoting wholeness and mutual aid. MAX does this through:

- Providing quality insurance products to protect MAX members’ homes, farms, vehicles, businesses, and churches
- Inviting denominational and district/conference leaders to help determine how MAX products can best be understood and made useful to church members
- Setting aside 1% of all premiums (“First Fruits”) to support the ministry of wholeness and mutual aid
- Administering MAX Share Fund grants (MAX’s charitable fund) primarily through local churches
- Consulting with congregational leaders to discern how best to respond to emergency financial needs
- Sharing prayer concerns with church members and congregational/denominational leaders through regular emails

Shared Values

By signing below, you agree to share in these understandings of Christian wholeness (the state of well-being) and mutual aid (caring and sharing for one another):

- Applying love and wholeness towards others and responding to the needs of those around us
- Nurturing an attitude of creating and sustaining wholeness in the use and application of all of God’s gifts including money, time, talents, health, and life
- Promoting wholeness by embracing peaceful arbitration and mediation as the best way to settle disputes and conflicts
- Practicing wholeness in our own lives by sharing our gifts and talents with others to build community and promote cooperation

I accept this Statement of Faith-Based Shared Values as central to the values of MAX, embrace these values, desire to become a member of MAX, and agree to participate in support of MAX and other fellow members by receiving printed and email communications from MAX, and by sharing in the journey as we live out these values in our daily lives.

Printed Name: _____ Email Address: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____